

MAXIMIN GRÜNHAUS (RUWER/MOSEL)

- Deeply historic and revered estate in the tiny Ruwer valley.
- Formerly a Benedictine monastery, founded in the 7th century.
- Very distinctive expression of terroir and winemaking style.
- Current owners are Maximin & Amelie von Schubert, the sixth generation.
- Estate vineyards are wholly owned, monopole sites with slate soil.
- Traditional winemaking: 100% native yeast fermentation.
- Maximin's father, Carl von Schubert, is president of the Mosel VDP.
- Average annual production: 12,500 cases.
