

VILLA WOLF (PFALZ)

- Historic Rhine valley winery, acquired by Erni Loosen in 1996.
- Located in the Pfalz region of southern Germany, north of Alsace.
- Warm and dry region because of the protective Haardt Mountains.
- Managed by winemaker Patrick Möllendorf.
- Estate vineyards achieved organic certification in 2021.
- Value line of vibrant wines from classic Pfalz region varieties.
 - Same dedication to quality and value as with Dr. L.
 - Frequently named “Best Buys” in major wine publications.
- Average annual production: 35,000 cases

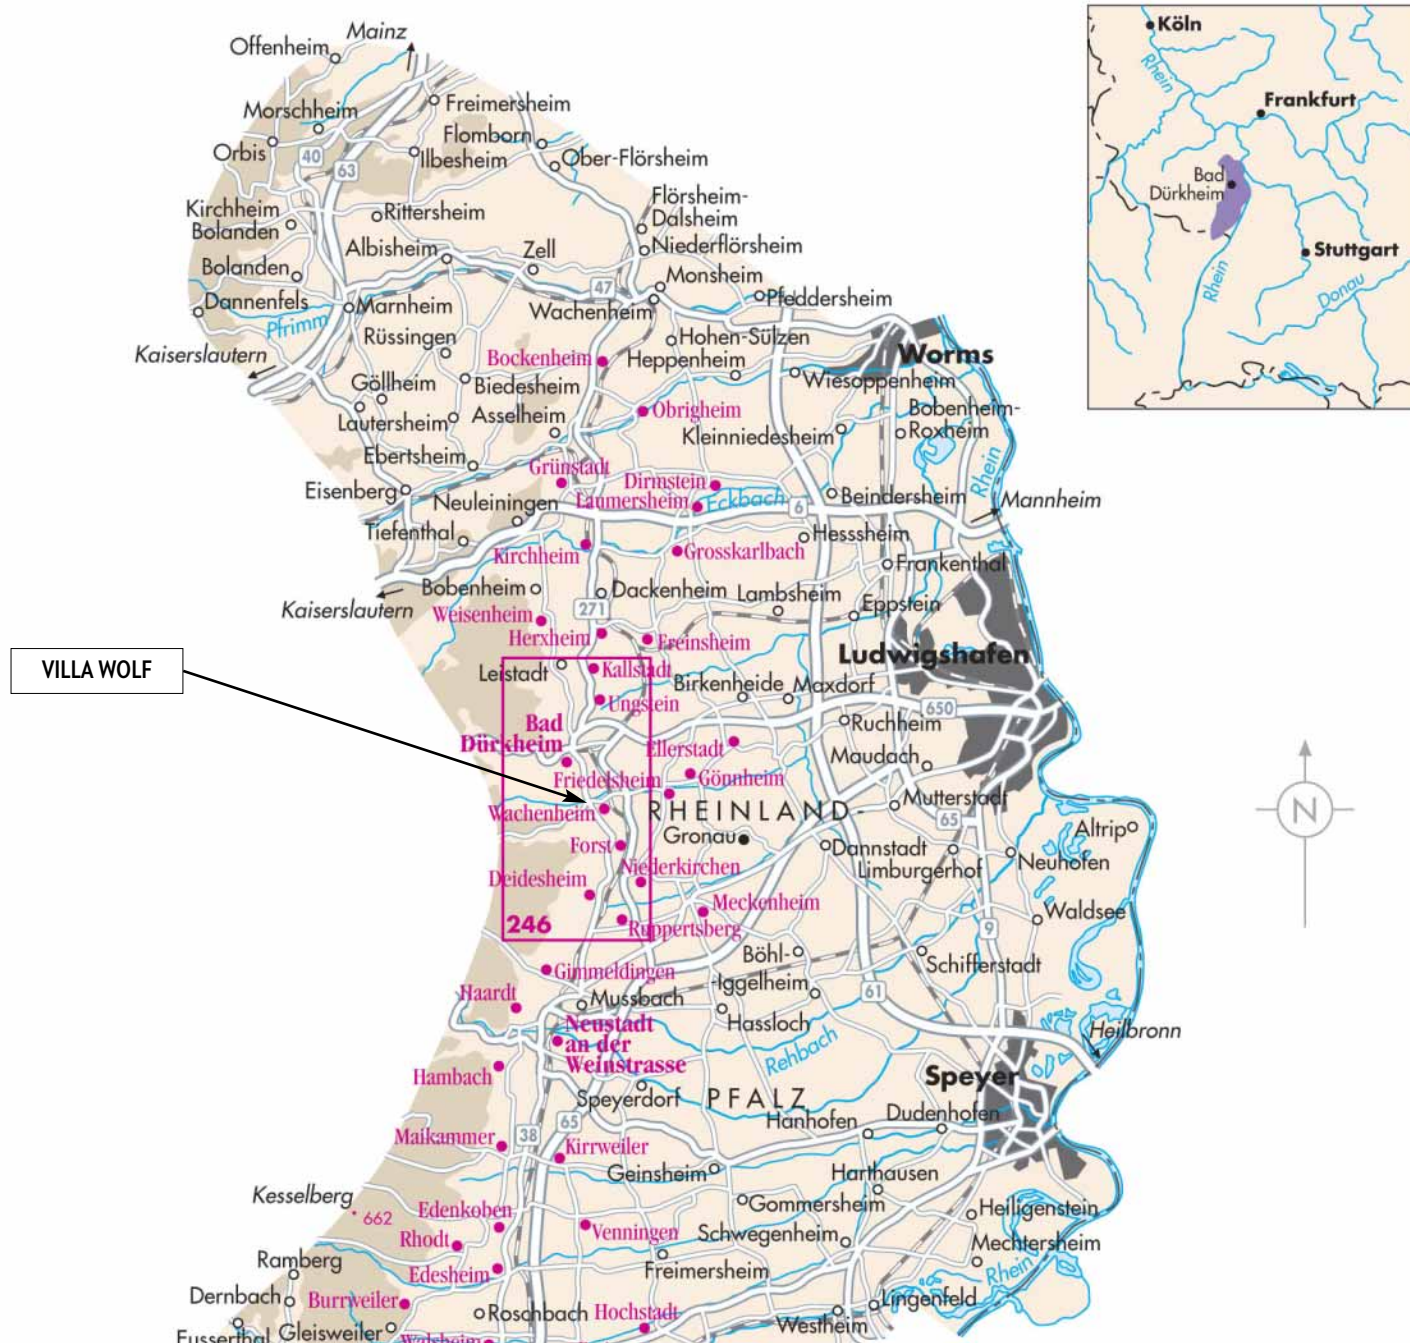

THE VILLA WOLF ESTATE

THE VILLA WOLF WINERY

THE PFALZ

THE HAARDT MOUNTAINS

WACHENHEIMER KÖNIGSWINGERT

koo-nigs-vingert (King's Vineyard)

Weathered sandstone soil.
Excellent southeast exposure.
Source of Wachenheimer Riesling.

WACHENHEIMER BELZ

belts

(Belz Family Vineyard)

Sandstone & shell limestone.

Ideal southern exposure.

Stony, perfumed wines.

FORSTER PECHSTEIN

pesh-stine (Black Stone)

Sandstone & black basalt.
Excellent eastern exposure.
Assertive, mineral-driven wines.

BELZ LIMESTONE

PECHSTEIN BASALT

THE VILLA WOLF RANGE OF WINES

VARIETAL WINES

SINGLE-VINEYARD WINES