

ROBERT WEIL

2024 Kiedrich Gräfenberg Riesling Spätlese

A stunning late-picked Riesling that balances natural sweetness with the complexity and intensity of a Grosse Lage vineyard.

TKiedrich Gräfenberg ("Hill of the Counts") is a steep, southwest-facing slope in a sheltered side valley of the Rheingau, with deep to medium-deep stony soil. Classified as a Grosse Lage (grand cru), Gräfenberg is renowned for the stunning depth and complexity of its wines. Spätlese ("late-picked") is produced from very ripe grapes, without botrytis, for a wine with epic minerality, nuanced fruit aromas, and an artful balance between crisp acidity and a rich natural sweetness.

THE 2024 VINTAGE

Despite a warm, wet, and often unpredictable 2024 season, Robert Weil achieved an exceptional range of wines from Kabinett to Trockenbeerenauslese for the 36th year in a row. Early budbreak was followed by a cool but healthy flowering and a fairly typical ripening phase. Harvest began in late September with beautifully ripe, golden grapes and continued into October with meticulous passes through the Erste and Grosse Lage (premier and grand cru) vineyards. The resulting wines are elegant, layered and vibrantly fresh, with outstanding balance and aromatics.

THE ROBERT WEIL ESTATE

Founded in 1875, Weingut Robert Weil is one of the finest producers in the Rheingau region. Wilhelm Weil, the great-grandson of the estate's founder, carries on the uncompromising, quality-oriented vineyard and cellar practices that have been the hallmark of this elite estate for four generations. The Rheingau is a small section of the Rhine River valley, near the city of Mainz. Notable for steep, south-facing slopes in a protected valley along a climate-moderating river, this legendary wine region has the ideal conditions for growing ripe, full-bodied Riesling.

[96] Vinous

"Charms with a flicker of passion fruit before lime zest kicks in. Its aroma and fruit run rings around your brain, full of charm, poise and seduction. The 2024 has immense agility, freshness and energetic liveliness."

— Anne Krebühl MW, Sept. 2025

[96] James Suckling

"Fantastic bouquet of honeysuckle, passion fruit and beautifully ripe peaches! Wonderful succulence and vitality on the generous, medium-bodied palate."

— Stuart Pigott, July 2025
