

ROBERT WEIL 2024 Kiedricher Riesling Trocken

A lively and invigorating dry Riesling from vineyards in Kiedrich, hometown of the Rheingau's most highly acclaimed estate.

This village wine (official German designation: "VDP.Ortswein") is produced from parcels of younger vines in the Robert Weil estate's three hillside sites in the village of Kiedrich. It is lively and effusive, with balanced acidity and a stately Baroque body. Charming stone fruit aromas and citrus flavors are woven into a refined minerality giving it the versatility to accompany a wide variety of cuisines.

THE 2024 VINTAGE

Despite a warm, wet, and often unpredictable 2024 season, Robert Weil achieved an exceptional range of wines from Kabinett to Trockenbeerenauslese for the 36th year in a row. Early budbreak was followed by a cool but healthy flowering and a fairly typical ripening phase. Harvest began in late September with beautifully ripe, golden grapes and continued into October with meticulous passes through the Erste and Grosse Lage (premier and grand cru) vineyards. The resulting wines are elegant, layered and vibrantly fresh, with outstanding balance and aromatics.

THE ROBERT WEIL ESTATE

Founded in 1875, Weingut Robert Weil is one of the finest producers in the Rheingau region. Wilhelm Weil, the great-grandson of the estate's founder, carries on the uncompromising, quality-oriented vineyard and cellar practices that have been the hallmark of this elite estate for four generations. The Rheingau is a small section of the Rhine River valley, near the city of Mainz. Notable for steep, south-facing slopes in a protected valley along a climate-moderating river, this legendary wine region has the ideal conditions for growing ripe, full-bodied Riesling.

[92] James Suckling

"Sleek and racy on the medium-bodied palate, this is a very elegant village wine with a wealth of white peach and crisp pear aromas and a delicate touch of herbal freshness in the long, stony finish."

— Sturat Pigott, March 2025

[90] Vinous

"Opens with a heightened, citric allure, accompanied by a touch of angelica. The slender palate has a gorgeous crunch. This is so elegant and refreshing."

— Anne Krebiehl MW, Sept. 2025
